The incredible linearity in hip-hop artist KON$TANT’s song ‘Alien Lover’ has the audience lose their mind over its catchy beats and relatable lyrical transcendence.

Los Angeles, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Hip-hop’s resurgence along the notes of personal thought-provoking lyrical arrangement is already a hit in the neo-wave of audience acceptance. Many new artists are coming out with compelling sagas through hip-hop’s distinct storytelling standards. Hip-hop artist KON$TANT is the newest patron in this frenzy of modern hip-hop and rap territory. His newest release, ‘Alien Lover’ is probably the most relevant track in the current thematic depictions in songs. He has conceptualized the known lanes of hip-hop and deconstructed his own style formulating beautiful and catchy tracks as a tribute to this generation. ‘Alien Lover’ not only captures the influential features of our everyday energies but also promotes what can be called good music.

California Singer KON\$TANT is a propagator of the emotional stances of everyday monotony by giving it a new name. With ‘Alien Lover’ he has apprehended the love and emotional stanzas of existence like never before. Based out of Los Angeles, he describes his outlook on life as a fun-loving and passionate person always on the go to make creativity ooze out in his ventures. A staunch believer in fairy-tale love, KON$TANT is our savior of hope during our Monday blues dilemma.

Some of his other songs including 'I Love You Soo..', 'My Grace' and 'Up Not Down', all have that innate validation that love is the greatest feeling in the world. He is creating stories and penning them like it is nobody's business along with a musical arrangement to sweep you off your feet.
