

Determination and Patience Makes Anything Possible In Author's New Book

Children's book packs on motivational lessons for friends and families

Tucson, Mar 4, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - "Nolan's Dream", written and illustrated by Janice Ramos Tingley, is the story of two young boys overcoming their learning disabilities and understanding genuine love and support.

The author, who experienced the same struggles at school while she was young, had been often told that her chances of succeeding were not the same as the rest of the kids. The thought made her challenge herself to do better and pursue her dreams. Her book's main characters, Nolan and Sean, and the beautiful friendship they share bring hope to readers from all ages. The author aims to teach not just the children but also their families, that with great patience and perseverance, nothing is impossible.

Janice Ramos Tingley will be having a meet-and-greet session at the Tucson Festival of Books to be held at the University of Arizona campus this coming March 2-3, 2019. She will be signing copies of her books at Authors Press' booth between 10:30 am to 5:30 pm. Festival goers and readers from all ages will get a chance to learn more about the author and discuss her work and inspiration in person.
