

Gulf Coast Poet Releases Third Installment to Nature-Inspired Photo Book Series

Appreciate beauty in nature and wildlife through photography and the author's poetry

Tucson, Mar 18, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Author Cheryl Batavia announces the nationwide release of her latest book, "Hanging Out with Wild Animals III," where she features fascinating animals from parrot fish and Florida black bears to zebra butterflies and bald eagles.

"Hanging Out with Wild Animals III" unveils the charm of the natural world through the power of wildlife photography and Batavia's verses. The poems are inspired by her real-life experiences from her home state of Florida's waters, beaches, woodlands, and parks.

The author weaves trivia, humor, information on animal behavior, habitat, and more within her poems. Readers will discover environmental themes throughout this book. Batavia encourages readers to go out to see wild animals in action, and the book includes guidelines for observing animals safely.

Authors Press showcased "Hanging Out with Wild Animals III" at the Tucson Festival of Books held at the University of Arizona Campus last March 2 to 3, 2019. Readers and festival goers got an exclusive preview of Batavia's work at Authors Press' booth number 154.
