

Inspiring Book Shares Teacher's Difficult Journey

Author's faith brings hope amidst trials and adversities

Tucson, Mar 3, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Jeanne Enstad's "A Journey of Hope to Heaven and Back" describes how the author survived multiple setbacks in her life.

In the book, Enstad shares overcoming four-open heart surgeries and other numerous operations, cancer, stroke, vascular disease, and a head-on collision with an 18-wheeler tractor trailer. There is no medical data sufficient enough to explain how she managed to stay alive after all the brutal brunt she has received physically, and yet she continues to thrive. Enstad hopes that her story will inspire readers to live to the fullest knowing that God is always watching over us.

"This book is written with honesty and sincerity to describe the author's survival of terribly difficult circumstances. Trials and tribulations will come to all of us. Jeanne shares her story of trusting faith in God to light the way for the rest of us. All this is done with a lighthearted touch of her thoughts and experiences. This book will change lives," says Amazon reviewer John C. Swartz.

Jeanne Enstad will be having a meet-and-greet session at the Tucson Festival of Books to be held at the University of Arizona Campus this coming March 2-3, 2019. Enstad will be signing copies of her books at the Authors Press' booth between 10:30 am to 5:30 pm. Festival goes and readers from all ages will get a chance to learn more about the author and discuss her work and inspiration in person.
