

Joseph Federico's Professional Career and Charitable Work

Clifton, Mar 25, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Joseph Federico is the Vice President and Director of Operations at NJ Micro Electronic Testing, Inc. based in Clifton, NJ. In this capacity, Joseph helps to streamline company workflow, address customer requirements while developing innovative new processes, in the electronics testing industry.

Academics and Early Career

Joseph Federico began his work in electronic component testing working for Solid State testing and then joining NJMET Inc in 1978. Joseph Federico developed the Mission: Imposter testing system which was helpful in the development of most counterfeit detection requirements in the electronics industry. Counterfeiting is a major problem in the electronic component industry. If a product manufacturer unwittingly purchases counterfeit or cloned components, they may suffer quality issues and end users could potentially suffer injuries. The Mission: Imposter system uses a wide variety of physical, metallurgical, chemical, and electronic tests to ensure the safety, quality, and authenticity of electronic components used in various applications. He also co-developed the military and aerospace reliability department at NJMET, which propelled him into leadership positions with the company.

Philanthropy and Personal Life

Joseph Federico believes strongly in supporting his local community and improving the lives of others. He has spearheaded numerous charitable causes including fundraising dinners and regularly devotes his personal time and resources to many charitable endeavours. He regularly donates to the American Red Cross, the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, and the March of Dimes, Oasis Haven for Woman and Eva's Kitchen.

Joseph's commitment to the service of others has carried over into his professional career and NJMET has helped organize many charitable events in recent years such as the Holiday Toy Drive for Oasis: a Haven for Women and Children in Paterson, NJ.

When Joseph isn't working or donating his time to charitable endeavours, he enjoys hiking, travelling, and spending time with his family. He has been a devoted friend to many around the world and Joseph Federico believes in improving the lives of others and he lives this belief in his professional and personal life.
