

Juventus FC comes to Silicon Valley

Juventus Academy announces their latest and biggest location in the U.S: Silicon Valley

Redwood City, Mar 27, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Juventus Sport Club (JSC) of Redwood City is excited to announce that it is becoming part of Juventus FC of Italy. Juventus FC of Italy is one of world's most respected and premier soccer clubs with stars like Cristiano Ronaldo on the roster and decades of winning Serie A and Champions League titles. This new partnership will bring the flagship Academy Program of Juventus FC of Italy to San Francisco and the Bay Area. Juventus Sport Club will now be known as Juventus Academy Silicon Valley. The bar is being raised for the game and the development of world-class soccer players, right here in Silicon Valley.

This partnership will be more than simply wearing the badge of a professional club. Juventus Academy Silicon Valley will have direct coaching support and guidance from the professional coaches in Italy. Components of the relationship will include training and competing with other premier academy programs around the globe and could culminate into local players advancing to play on professional soccer leagues in Europe.

Juventus FC is not only proud of their legendary men's professional team but also their very talented women's professional team. The new Academy program in Redwood City will provide equally exciting opportunities for both boys and girls.

The inaugural season will begin July 1, 2019. Tryouts will be held in Redwood City during the month of May. The highlights of the fall season will include Juventus Academy Silicon Valley teams traveling to Italy to train and compete.

JSC has been developing excellent soccer players for the last 63 years and has been a major contributor to youth sports in the Bay Area. The club has placed numerous players on Collegiate, Professional, and National Teams and currently has its top tier boy's teams competing in the US Soccer Development Academy Program. These contributions have helped the club earn the respect of many. Now as Juventus Academy Silicon Valley, the club will increase its commitment to excellence by providing as many opportunities as possible to our local youth with the support of Juventus FC. Players are one step closer to realizing their dream of sharing the field with world-class players like Cristiano Ronaldo and Barbara Bonansea.
