

Las Vegas' Young Entrepreneur Ashley K. Shift Will Speak At First Annual CannaCulture Retreat

Las Vegas, Mar 21, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Elevate Consulting, LLC., alongside Curry Tabanca present the First Annual CannaCulture Retreat at HeadzUP Vegas, 3542 S Maryland Pkwy, Las Vegas, NV 89169 on March 23 & 24, 2019.

The CannaCulture Retreat is an opportunity for industry leaders, Dispensaries, Cultivation Facilities, Labs, Cannabis teams to send their employees to the CannaCulture workshop to engage in fun teamwork that is combined with friendly competition among industry leaders.

Ashley K. Shift, Las Vegas' youngest and first black female to own a CBD, Crystal, and Herb store, Hacked by Nature, will be a featured speaker on March 24, 2019. Ashley K. will be speaking on her experience in the booming cannabis industry, her profound entrepreneurial journey, and dropping key tips on how to "shift" into the next phase of your life. Shift's store Hacked by Nature will be hosting a pop-up shop with an assortment of products that supply individuals with the tools needed to get in tune and connected with nature. Whether it's sage, candles, rose quartz crystal, or a class, Hacked by Nature has products & services to help one achieve mental, physical and spiritual alignment.

A two-day immersive experience designed for workers in the Cannabis Industry to learn key communication and strategy skills that are guaranteed to help avoid costly mistakes, work more efficiently, and identify areas for skill development to build connectedness and positive culture.

CannaCulture was created to increase cannabis knowledge, practice industry leading communication skills, and empower team culture and wellness.

Additionally, CannaCulture Retreat will consist of the following; meditation and group wellness, leadership development, healthy group competition, You-Eat-What-You-Make team lunch, SOP and industry education, featured keynote speakers, evening networking mixer, privilege walk, escape room, 3D trick art, and more "GAMIFICATION" learning techniques.

CannaCulture Retreat is designed to elevate the efficiency of communication and leadership within a team culture while building trust and performance, by participation in team building activities and education. Tickets are available on EventBrite.
