

Matthew Schultz is Exemplifying Experiential Sagas through Compelling Verses of Chill Pop and EDM

Virtuous entrails of differential experience gathering have culminated into one of the most lenient sound streams of the contemporary flavor by Matthew Schultz.

Jersey City, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Following the bandwagon of subjective interpretation and music's eccentricity is artist Matthew Schultz and his distinctive texture in his style of music. Venturing around the trebles of chill pop and EDM, the most conspicuous sound of the contemporary musical extravaganza, Matthew Schultz has built his own style of musical expression through years of disparity in cultural concepts. His newest singles, 'Somewhere Far' and collaborative versions of 'Promise For Keeps' have been instrumental in turning his career graph from the ashes of rock to neo-EDM.

Matthew Schultz caresses his passion for music like no other as he has been a part of many celebrated ventures in the spectrum of visual art and music making along the years of his own creative growth. A singer, performer, producer and multi-instrumentalist, he has been one of the most consistent artists in the collective industry of innovative creations. He has had his share of television representation as well with commercial and critical hits like 'Real Housewives of New Jersey' and his career-defining casting in 'The Dark Night Rises' among others.

Matthew Schultz's other hits in his sole venture as a musician include 'Money or Me', another tremendous sell-out with Jim Jones. As he continues to create more ethereal pieces of cultural redemption with his captivating voice, his gradient of popularity is only on the rise. Follow his work on Spotify, Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter to be a part of a journey that stands as a tribute to the expense of life and its beautiful idiosyncrasies.
