

Missouri Artist to Empower Others with New Album Titled Self Care

Talented Missouri artist 'Huss West' sets to debut songs from his new album titled "Self Care" at the live music venue named The Riot Room located at 4048 Broadway St on March 24. Don't miss out!!

Kansas City, Mar 6, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Huss who has established himself as one of the true positive leaders and motivational rapper of the American releases a record breaker album titled "Self Care". His incredible upbeat attitude, motivational songs, and positive energy combine to make him one of the most sought after rap artiste in the business today.

Having picked up numerous awards and recognition from his songs, the Missouri based rapper Huss sets to break ALL records with his new album "Self Care" a fully embellished production which goes deep into his own life experiences with high quality lyrics, captivating flow and sound. The album will make you understand Huss as an artist and as a man.

The therapeutic album from Huss features 11 tracks and is an expression of things that Huss normally keeps to his own self such as loneliness, depression, future, fatherhood and thoughts about being good enough are just a few topics that are shared throughout Self Care. Huss's request to his audience is to put yourself first, do what is best for you and find your outlet. After listening to Self Care you should feel that you will conquer the difficulties of life and not let emotions get the best of you.

After the sudden and tragic death of late rapper 'Mac Miller' Huss felt inspired to write an album that depicted where his mental state was at that time. He credits Miller's "Swimming" album as the driving force behind his current project, and used the recording process as a form of self-therapy; one that he could soon share with others who battle with loneliness and depression. He hopes to bring awareness to the world and the importance of taking care of oneself in his second full-length album.

The album release party will start at 6:30 pm and will feature performances from the likes of C4 KCG, Green Kanvaz, Mic Rw, Tribus, Who Bangz, X-Nosis and YNFA Records. Huss West will be the headliner and will close out the event. After the show, guests can enjoy a meet-and-greet with Huss West including a prize drawing, pizza and a cutting of cake.
