

Mother Comforts Grieving Families Undergoing the Same Loss

Author offers solace to parents who lost a child in her memoir

Tucson, Mar 3, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Author Kaye S. Beechum needed closure from the sudden loss of her beloved youngest daughter, Cheryl Jean, caused by a car accident. With the support of her family and friends, she launches her memoir, "Forever 19," as a tribute to her daughter.

Beechum's memoir, which took over 30 years to write, serves as a bridge for her to help others who are also grieving from the loss of a loved one. She hopes her book can comfort those who are going through the same pain. On regular days, Beechum continues her work as a traffic officer of the Los Angeles

Police Department. She is also involved in training new officers for different departments.

Beechum will be having a meet-and-greet session at the Tucson Festival of Books to be held at the University of Arizona this coming March 2-3, 2019. She will be signing copies of her books at Authors Press' booth 154 between 10:30 am to 5:30 pm. Festival goers and readers from all ages will get a chance to learn more about the author and discuss her work and inspiration in person.
