

PA Author Infuses Religious Thriller with Vampire Fiction in New Book

The battle between good and evil is not all in black and white

Tucson, Mar 3, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Author Richard Spegal's new suspense novel, "Eternal Nights—Book 1: Redemption," centers on long-time married couple, John and Danielle Wolf. The games they play — Mesmerize the Mortal, Race the Train, and Hunt the Werewolf — are usual entertainment for vampiric couples who have lived together for over 900 years.

Though they've been living as such since their wedding night in 1089 AD, John and Danielle never lost their sense of humanity. They don't kill innocents or feed unnecessarily for blood, unlike other vampires. In spite of this, a zealous group called the Sword of God have discovered them and are intent on hunting them down.

Formed by the Pope in the seventh century to destroy the physical manifestations of evil, the Sword of God has been the sworn enemy of vampires for hundreds of years. The question is: will John and Danielle finally get redemption they are afraid to seek in this life-and-death battle for survival?

Blue Ink Review confirms that, "Spegal offers unique twists in vampire lore, and the logic he creates for his creatures and organizations is well-supported... For die-hard fans of vampire stories, this is a fast-paced, high-action tale with originality and an interesting underlying conflict."

Authors Press will showcase "Eternal Nights — Book 1: Redemption" at the Tucson Festival of Books to be held at the University of Arizona Campus this coming March 2-3, 2019. Festival-goers will be treated to an exclusive preview and learn more about Spegal's work at Authors Press' booth.
