

Relive the Charm of Macon Soul Music with ‘I want to be Crazy For You’ by Ace Miller and Renaissance

The soul infused funk track ‘I Want to Be Crazy for You’ is dragging more traffic on YouTube. This epic single is by the band Ace Miller and Renaissance 2030.

Macon, Mar 19, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - The up and coming Soul and Rock Music band Ace Miller and Renaissance 2030 are all set to bring back the lost spirit of Macon, Georgia music scene with their new project ‘I Want To Be Crazy For You’. The city Macon has been the land of legendary R&B, soul and jazz artists like Otis Redding, Randy Crawford, James Brown and Little Richard all who have given some of the best songs in the soul music history. Yet again a team of cheerful, free-spirited and outstanding musicians from diverse fields came together to make the world dance to their amazing song ‘I want to Crazy For you’. This beautiful track is blended with all the necessary elements of soul, rock, and funk powered with intricate components that give energetic and party vibes.

One of the key band members Leroy Ace Miller is already a great artist and by collaborating with other artists of the band, they are set out to transform the music scene of Macon into a unique and updated sound that will create an edge to the soul and funk genre. The Youtube video of the track is available on YouTube and features an image consisting of the band members and their logo. The band Ace Miller and Renaissance 2030 made its debut appearance with the single ‘First Time’ that already gave signs that the Macon soul music scene was back with a bang and in fact with more energy as the artists added dance elements to the composition.

The second project 'I Want To Be Crazy For You' is indeed a step ahead and artist Ace Miller claims that 'If your heart ain't strong, you'd better leave us alone'. That signifies the energetic and catchy beats of the track that will make listeners groove with its every beat. Also, the band has given some amazing performances amongst which the concert with the Midnight Star at the Pan African Festival in Macon, Georgia was a super hit. If you are a lover of soul music and want to witness the flavors of the golden era with a twist, you must watch the YouTube video:
