The novel follows two college students about to plunge into a cutthroat world without guidance from their parents. Main character Liz Anderson is just starting to find her footing in her newfound independence—going to college, getting a job, and living on her own. But then she meets Willie Anderson. They start dating. They soon find out the complications that come with falling in love. Like most young couples feeling their way through a new setting, things between them start to get sour. Willie breaks up with Liz and starts dating someone else. But Willie realizes his mistake. He goes to Liz to win her back before another man does. Will Liz accept Willie back? Or will she choose the new guy?
