

Seacraft Gallery Announces new Line of Handcrafted Model Ships & Model Boats in Australia

Wooden model ship and model boats are a passion with a rising number of new enthusiasts. Australia company, Seacraft Gallery recently launched a new line of handcrafted selections.

Sydney, Mar 31, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - While building model ships from kits is an interest for some, there are many others who would prefer high-quality wooden model ships, model boats, and similar choices that are already put together by true professionals. This is exactly the kind of product and service Australia's Seacraft Gallery offers, to customers worldwide. In fact, they are the first and only provider of these kinds of choices in their country. With an ever-growing catalog and obsessive attention to detail, the company recently celebrated the positive attention they continue to receive near and far, with the exciting launch of a new line of product choices.

“We are dedicated to replica ships and other styles of handcrafted models,” commented a spokesperson from Seacraft Gallery. “We don't sell kits, we sell premium quality model boats that any person would be very proud to have on display in their home or office, or to give as a unique and memorable gift. Our mission is to exceed even very high expectations and make every customer someone who wants to order from us again and recommend us to friends and family. We know our new line will impress.”

According to the company, some of their most popular categories of handcrafted models include model ships, model yachts, model boats, model aircraft, model cars, model motorcycles, and premium display cases, perfect for showing off any of the premium models that Seacraft Gallery offer.

Shipping to Australia and New Zealand generally takes place within one business day with arrival time varying based on the location sent to. All orders over $150 ship for free, with the small charge of $15 for flat rate delivery in Australia and New Zealand for orders under $150. Worldwide shipping costs depend on location and can be found on the Seacraft Gallery website.

Reviews for the company's work remain passionate.

Michael, in Melbourne, recently said in a five-star review, "We absolutely adore the handcrafted wooden replica ships we have ordered from Seacraft Gallery. So far we have three and are sure to have more to come, plus it's time we started getting some display cases as well. A great calming effect to have in our study and also interesting conversation pieces, with friends and family. I recommend the company for model ships and boats completely."
