

The Single “Mango Tree’ is the Perfect Youth Anthem Composed by Karkosa

Groove to the eclectic track ‘Mango Tree’ by the UK-based Indie rock band Karkosa on SoundCloud. This amazing track is the perfect mood setter for the youths.

West Midlands, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - Be it the team spirit, the synchronization or the music score, the upcoming music band Karkosa is indeed the highlight of this season. The band is based Birmingham, UK and has been founded by two brothers Mic and Jack Warnock who are also the vocalist, guitarist and the drummer of the band. There are also other band members who play different instruments like keyboard and bass. The enthusiastic band has by now written and composed numerous music pieces that are the perfect inspiration for the youth of the modern age. Karkosa is heavily influenced by the Bottleman, Catfish, Royal Blood and The Amazons, the celebrated players in the rock music industry. The latest single 'Mango Tree' is now streaming on Spotify.

The USP of Karkosa is their approach to blend heavy guitar riffs subtle synths and Killers-esque monologues, to produce the perfect youth anthems. Some of their very popular singles that have been acclaimed globally are 'Red Hoodie', 'Lonely Kid', 'Where the River Flows', 'Sheffield' and of course the trending track 'Mango Tree'.

When it comes to 'Mango Tree' right from the opening guitar notes, the track builds on the energy. The free-spirited and melodious vocals and catchy drum beats make the single more alluring. The track gives inspiring vibes and conveys some inspirational messages to the young people out there. Fans and listeners are eagerly waiting to witness an audio-visual experience. Recently, the band has recorded a single with the Korean label Beeline Records that will be out on April. Stay tuned to Spotify and follow Karkosa on Instagram, Twitter and Facebook.
