

Top Talent Announces New Chief Operating Officer.

The Indianapolis based logistics recruiting firm names Vice President Brenda Taylor as new COO.

Indianapolis, Mar 4, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Top Talent LLC, the nation's leading logistics talent acquisition firm, announced today that Vice President Brenda Taylor has been named the company's new Chief Operating Officer. With this new role, Taylor will assume daily operations of the company, something she has been doing in part for the last year.

President & CEO, Michael Monson, will still maintain a very active role within the organization, focusing his efforts on the business acquisition division within the company. Along with his focused role in business acquisitions, Monson will also maintain strong relationships with clients, allowing them to utilize his 30+ years of logistics experience. Monson said, "Since Brenda joined Top Talent, we have experienced tremendous growth. She has been an integral part of Top Talent, and has risen through the ranks by using her business acumen to penetrate the market in new ways. It was a no brainer for Brenda to become the COO, as she's been handling many of the duties for the last year."

Taylor started at Top Talent 3 years ago as a recruiter, forming a two-person team with Monson. They experienced almost instant success, and rapid growth ensued. Taylor was elevated to Vice President, taking a role that oversaw all recruiters, and had a large role in the daily operations of the company.

Taylor says, "Since starting with Top Talent just over 3 years ago, the growth has been explosive. With growth come challenges, but more than that, come opportunities. I'm excited to be an integral part of the day to day operations growth, and success of Top Talent." She continues, "It's very rewarding to see our team succeed, because our success is predicated on our clients' success."

The growth has been rapid. Over the past 3 years, revenue has doubled each year over the previous year's revenue, and it doesn't look to be slowing down anytime soon. This growth has allowed Top Talent to move into its new corporate headquarters on the Northside of Indianapolis, and they now maintain a full staff of recruiters, sourcers, and support personnel.
