Get to know Respiratory Therapist Audrey Marie Ballard, who serves not only the population of Fishers, Indiana, but a global population.

New York City, Apr 3, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Audrey Marie Ballard is a Registered Respiratory Therapist with extensive experience in the medical field. Audrey has branched her healthcare experience to include research where she seeks innovative ways to help patients globally.

Audrey graduated with an Associate of Applied Science from IVY Tech Community College and her Bachelor of Science in Allied Health Science Education from Indiana University. Furthering her education, she graduated with a Master's in Executive Development for Public Services in 2007 from Ball State University, followed by her Master's in Public Health, Health Policy and Management from Indiana University Richard M Fairbanks School of Public Health in 2012.

Audrey attributes her professional success to her desire to help others. Mentoring others is very important to her as well as giving back to her community.

A respiratory therapist is a specialized healthcare practitioner trained in pulmonary medicine to work therapeutically with people suffering from pulmonary disease. Respiratory therapists are specialists and educators in many areas including cardiology, pulmonology, and sleep therapy. Respiratory therapists are clinicians trained in advanced airway management; establishing and maintaining the airway during management of trauma, and intensive care. Respiratory therapists initiate and manage life support for people in intensive care units and emergency departments, stabilizing, treating and managing pre-hospital and hospital-to-hospital patient transport by air or ground ambulance.
