

GQNorth welcomes realtor, Lu Ann Henderson

Sacramento, Apr 17, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - GQNorth is proud to announce that commercial specialist, Lu Ann Henderson has joined the Sacramento real estate firm GQNorth Real Estate.

Henderson, one of Northern California's top-producing commercial real estate professionals, formerly with The Vollman Company, has moved to a more specialized real estate firm. She has now joined GQNorth in Sacramento where her talents and experience can be better utilized.

Henderson brings with her over a decade of commercial real estate (CRE) experience, a great deal of localized expertise and an unrivaled reputation for exceptional customer service. "As a landlord/sellers representative, my goal is to always be going the extra mile for my clients," says Henderson.

Armed with incredibly long-standing connections in the Sacramento, Los Angeles, and the greater Bay Area, Henderson is an amazing asset to her clients. Henderson maintains the highest standards of excellence in commercial real estate through her strong work ethic and cutting-edge negotiation skills.

Henderson has extensive experience in all sectors of CRE, equally specializing in industrial, retail, office and land development. She recently entered two “hard corner” land lots into escrow for a substantial price per square foot (PPSF). “Stay tuned for the new South Sacramento development of a future gas station and fast food restaurant,” added Henderson.

With detailed attentiveness and proven ability to produce in leasing and sales, Henderson has earned the loyalty and trust of her clients. So much so, that all of her clients followed her to GQ North -- this speaks volumes in this competitive industry.

GQNorth is a growing organization based on a reputation for superior service. Simply posting the listing online and putting a sign out front used to be enough to make a listing stand out from a crowd. Aggressively advertising and marketing a client’s property to help maximize value is key. “We are very excited to have Lu Ann on board and we believe her knowledge and expertise will add great value to our Boutique Firm,” says Bob Shahlaie President of GQNorth and CEO Nate Giwoff.

“I am thrilled about joining GQ North and the enormous opportunity it presents for achieving even greater accomplishments,” adds Henderson.
