

Gritz & Jelly Butter and The Jimmy King Experience Sell Out City Winery Atlanta

Atlanta, Apr 4, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - On Wednesday, April 10, 2019, Full Circle Consulting Group Presents two of their hottest acts at City Winery in Ponce City Market. Atlanta's legendary own, Gritz & Jelly Butter along with The Jimmy King Experience.

Gritz & Jelly Butter has been a staple in the Atlanta music scene for years. As one of the top bands in the Southeast Region, Gritz & Jelly Butter specialize in finger snaps, head nods, swaying hips, foot taps, and good vibes. A seamless mixture of soul, r&b, pop, hip -hop, reggae, and classic rock is the secret sauce behind this explosive trio.

The Jimmy King Experience will bring you the sounds of Gumbo Music fusing together the sounds of jazz, funk, hip-hop, pop and soul music. Jimmy King is one of The Hooligan Band members for Bruno Mars and has been on tour for the past few years with the group. Going back to his roots, Jimmy has been doing spot dates with his own band and taking music lovers by surprise.

ABOUT CITY WINERY

City Winery is the brainchild of Michael Dorf, founder of the iconic Knitting Factory, one of New York's longest running music venues. Dorf wanted to create a space where he could combine his shared passions for wine and music thus opening the first City Winery concept in New York City in 2008. Since then he has opened locations in Chicago, Nashville, Atlanta, and Boston. City Winery strives to deliver the highest-end combined culinary and cultural experience to its customers who are passionate in sharing wine, music, and culinary arts in a unique facility that combines a fully functioning winery with intimate concerts, food & wine classes, private events and fine dining. City Winery provides residents of a busy urban environment the wine country experience in the middle of the city. Patrons can experience a compelling mix of chef-driven cuisine from head chef Nick Anderson and unique, house-made wines by the glass or bottle while listening to some of the most exciting musical talents in the country.
