

India is Loving its New Era Of Independent Artists - Says Singer Vivek Verma

Vivek Verma is Ready with his back to back releases.

Mumbai, Apr 30, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - The voice behind Mai Aur Tu, Vivek Verma is becoming a sensation among youngsters. The 25-year-old singer shares his thoughts about the current music industry Scenarios and Current situation of Independent Artists in India.

Talking about his upcoming Releases, Vivek says, “ I have Multiple Tracks Awaiting to get released, I and my Team are really working hard to produce the sound which The New India Loves, My next Number will be absolutely a peppy song which will make u tap your toe on the beat.”

Continuing further, Vivek said, “I am really Inspired with my Fellow Artists who Are really setting Milestones in the Era of Independent Music in India.”

Vivek says he is glad about this parallel industry blooming in India. He exclaims, “Just like the music in films, there has to be a separate music industry like they have in Western Countries and I really want to bring revolution in it, making our nation a Cult Setter, and yes, India is Loving its New Era Of Independent Artists.”

For Someone who has Got Experience from Music Pioneers like 'Himesh Reshammiya' really have to face a Challenging situation to maintain the legacy of his mentors.
