

Nicholas S. Maccarone, LAC, Licensed Associate Counselor in private practice

Get to know Licensed Associate Counselor Nicholas S. Maccarone, who serves patients in New Jersey.

New York City, Apr 30, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Nicholas is a licensed associate counsellor (LAC) based out of Sewell, New Jersey. By analyzing his patients' past and current experiences, he works to create goals and the most effective treatment modalities for each individual.

Nicholas received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Rowan University in Glassboro, New Jersey in 2014. Thereafter, he went on to complete his Master of Arts degree in the Clinical Mental Health Counseling program at Rowan University in 2016.

During his undergraduate work, Nicholas worked with patients with autism under the supervision of an ABA therapist, which further spurred his interest to pursue a career in counselling.

Nicholas is a member of the American Counseling Association. The American Counseling Association is the world's largest organization representing professional counsellors in various practice settings. The mission of the organization is to promote the professional development of counsellors, to advocate for the profession, and to ensure ethical, culturally-inclusive practices that protect those using counselling services.

By completing the requisite education and passing a licensing exam, one can become a licensed associate counsellor (LAC). A LAC, like Nicholas, works with patients who are suffering from mental, behavioural, and emotional problems and disorders. He encourages them to discuss their emotions and experiences for the purpose of improving their mental health and quality of life. Nicholas's areas of competence include autism, anxiety, depression, behavioural difficulties, adjustment disorders, and trauma-related symptoms.

Nicholas is a highly motivated and driven individual. He attributes his success to his ability to build trusting relationships with his patients, as well as his conceptualizing his patient's to implement the most appropriate treatment modality.

In his spare time, Nicholas enjoys going to the city, hanging out with friends, playing video games, listening to music, and playing sports.
