

Registered Nurse Ruth DAvilar, RN Provides Care for the Brooklyn, New York Area

Get to know Registered Nurse Ruth DAvilar, who is now Retired.

New York City, Apr 17, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Registered Nurse Ruth DAvilar is now currently retired, though she remains affiliated with Woodhull Hospital Center. NYC Health + Hospitals/Woodhull is the hospital of choice for residents of North Brooklyn, including Bushwick, Williamsburg, Greenpoint, Bedford Stuyvesant, and Fort Greene. They provide primary, specialty, and acute care services with an emphasis on disease prevention and health promotion. They treat all patients regardless of their ability to pay. They value their partnership with the community in identifying and meeting health care needs.

Ruth graduated with her Nursing degree in 1977, giving her over four decades of experience in her field. She holds expertise in Medical/Surgical care, Obstetrics, Psyche, and Telephonic Triage.

To stay up to date in her field she remains a professional member of the American Nurses Association. The American Nurses Association (ANA) is the premier organization representing the interests of the nation's 4 million registered nurses. ANA is at the forefront of improving the quality of health care for all. Founded in 1896, and with members in all 50 states and U.S. territories, ANA is the strongest voice for the profession.

Ruth attributes her professional success to watching other nurses as a young girl and wanting to help others. Now that she is retired she enjoys the time she has to travel and crochet.
