

Heartland League, a USA gaming and esports league, launches with star line up

Heartland League – USA League launches starring 12 of the best North American Counterstrike teams

Chicago, May 9, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Heartland esports gaming league – has just announced its first ever online esports league featuring 12 teams from all over North America who will compete over the next 2 months in the gaming league's first season. These teams consist of some of North America's finest CSGO players who will battle it out for spots in the Quarterfinals of the tournament which will take place in the summer of 2019.

Marti Toth, spokesperson for the Heartland League commented that "Heartland will be a brutally competitive atmosphere and will celebrate the achievements of some of the great up and coming esports stars of our time"

These esports teams will compete in a Round-Robin (best of 1 map) group stage followed by a single elimination (best of 3 maps) playoffs stage. The Heartland League has also published extensive gaming and esports rulebook which will moderate the teams throughout the season, including strict anti-cheating and anti-drug taking policies, to uphold the highest integrity.

The Heartland League has revealed the following roster of teams for their upcoming season:

- FrontGG
- CycloneGG
- Aspiration Esports

- Team Kinesis
- LiviD
- Brazen eSports
- Dogs of War
- Identity Disorder
- Team Unbroken
- Team Holo
- Onyx Esports
- Hentai Heroes

Mountain Dew League \(MDL\) competitors FrontGG made a statement via their manager Eric Sousa saying “FrontGG is very excited to go up against the future of North American Counter-Strike in the Heartland League. The other teams have strong players with tons of talent” adding with a smile to start banter “however, FrontGG is just too much to handle!”.

Following this upcoming season, the league will announce plans to launch CSGO Intermediate and Advanced leagues, as well as diving into a variety of other undisclosed esports titles.
