Get to know Obstetrician-gynecologist Dr. Lori Teverbaugh, who serves patients in Peoria, Illinois.

New York City, May 23, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Teverbaugh is a board-certified obstetrician-gynecologist (OB-GYN). She was drawn to the field of obstetrics and gynecology because of the opportunity to care for women of all ages and to help bring new life into the world. Her approach to patient care is simple and a classic example of the golden rule.

Dr. Teverbaugh is currently serving patients at Teverbaugh Croland & Mueller OB/GYN & Associates, S.C. in Peoria, Illinois. Teverbaugh Croland & Mueller OB/GYN & Associates, S.C. is devoted to the care of females of all ages and finding the best solution to their health care needs. Specializing in obstetrics, gynecology, urogynecology, and infertility, the practice consists of five OB/GYN physicians, five certified nurse midwives, and three nurse practitioners who pride themselves in being able to provide personalized and individualized care.

Dr. Teverbaugh also teaches as a Clinical Associate Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Illinois College of Medicine.

Dr. Teverbaugh received a B.S. in biology at the University of Illinois in Urbana, Illinois. Thereafter, she went on to receive her medical degree from the University of Illinois College of Medicine in Peoria, Illinois. She completed her residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria, where she was also Chief Resident in Obstetrics and Gynecology from 2002 until 2003.

Dr. Teverbaugh is a Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG). ACOGs are board-certified OB-GYNs whose professional activities are devoted to the practice of obstetrics and/or gynecology. They possess unrestricted licenses to practice medicine, having attained high ethical and professional standing.

Dr. Teverbaugh holds professional memberships with several organizations, including the American Association of Gynecologic Laparoscopists, the American Medical Association, the Illinois State Medical Society, and the Peoria Medical Society.

Obstetrics and gynecology is the medical specialty that encompasses the two subspecialties of obstetrics and gynecology. OB-GYNs, like Dr. Teverbaugh, specialize in the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of diseases and disorders that affect women. Additionally, they work with expecting mothers throughout their pregnancies, during childbirth, and into postpartum. Expert procedures undertaken by Dr. Teverbaugh include fetal monitoring, dilation and curettage, and hysteroscopy.

Dr. Teverbaugh wanted to pursue a career in healthcare because she wanted to help make a difference. Personal circumstances helped drive her to pursue her goals as well. "I became interested in medicine when women in my family were battling cancers and autoimmune disorders," said Dr. Teverbaugh.

Dr. Teverbaugh lives in Peoria with her husband, Chad, and their son, Ian. The family has two German shepherds and a puggle.

In her spare time, Dr. Teverbaugh enjoys spending time with her family, as well as hiking, boating, camping, and fishing. She also enjoys participating in fundraisers for local organizations.
