Before, the company had achieved the same feat in 2012 and 2013, along with the recognition of Deloitte Technology Fast 500 Asia Pacific (APAC) in the consecutive years. BYJU's, Paytm and Zomato is the other premier companies that got listed on Deloitte Technology Fast 50 India 2016. FuGenX is one of the only few companies to win Deloitte's Fast 50 India award, three times.

The company is consistently proving its worth and potential by bagging a top position in the Deloitte Technology Fast 50 India. The Deloitte Technology Fast 50 India ranking is one of the prestigious standards that measure and recognize the growth of the fastest-growing technology companies in the country.

Receiving the award, Bhabani Sankar Jena, the CEO of FuGenX Technologies said, "We are proud to be recognized by Deloitte Technology Fast 50 award for the third time. This award is a strong testament for our amplifying revenue growth rate that has been achieved with the supreme appliance of technology, innovative business models, qualified human resources and peak level customer satisfaction. This award stimulates us towards expanding our national and global reach and better serve customers, with a remarkable vision, resilience, and strength that we possess."

Speaking about the award, Debashis Behera, the MD of FuGenX Technologies said, "Our growth is a reflection of our commitment to innovation and the rising confidence of enterprises in our cutting-edge mobility services and solutions. I congratulate everyone at FuGenX for their faithful dedication in consistently achieving these exceptional results. I thank Deloitte for consistently recognizing our scintillating growth and encouraging us to perform better."

"Sustaining growth in a competitive and dynamic environment needs innovation and adaptability on a continuous basis, and our Top 50 Winners of 2016 are a testament to this," said Rajiv Sundar, Senior Director, Deloitte in India.
