Get to know Family Practitioner Dr. R. Gail Brown, who serves patients in Gadsden, Alabama.

New York City, May 20, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Brown is a family practitioner. She believes in a holistic and natural approach to medicine, emphasizing that the mind and body should be in equilibrium for optimum health, happiness, and youthful quality of life.

Dr. Brown is the owner of Medi Spa of Gadsden - a regenerative medicine clinic in Gadsden, Alabama.

At her clinic, she provides services such as hand rejuvenation, liquid facelift, hair restoration, as well as stretch mark and scar treatments.

Dr. Brown is trained in urgent care, primary care, cosmetic Botox injections, dermal fillers and facial sculpting, laser and light treatments, vein therapy, chemical peels, as well as medical-grade skin care. She also incorporates hormonal therapy and psychology into her practice of aesthetic and regenerative medicine.

Dr. Brown is an authorized provider of the “Vampire” procedure, which is a specific trademarked method of using PRP (Platelet Rich Plasma) from one’s own blood to rejuvenate cells and grow new tissue. Vampire facial procedures are a safe, natural way to restore lost youth by stimulating the growth of tissue, new collagen, and increased blood flow for a youthful, healthy glow.

Dr. Brown received her medical degree from the Medical University of the Americas (MUA) in 2006. She then went on to complete her residency in family medicine through the Montgomery Family Medicine Residency Program - sponsored by Baptist Health. She also holds a master’s degree in social work (MSW) from the University of Arkansas.

Dr. Brown holds certifications by the American Board of Addiction Medicine, the American Board of Anti-Aging / Regenerative Medicine, and the American Board of Family Medicine.

Dr. Brown holds professional memberships with several organizations, including the Alabama Academy of Family Physicians, the American Society of Addiction Medicine, and the American Medical Association.

Family medicine, formerly family practice, is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. A family practitioner, like Dr. Brown, is a doctor who specializes in caring for the entire family. They serve as a doctor for individuals regardless of their age and gender. In addition to diagnosing and treating illnesses, family practitioners also put focus on preventative care with routine checkups, tests, and personalized coaching on how to maintain a healthy lifestyle.
