

Trinity Tiara is Crowned Miss West Los Angeles Teen USA, Miss Universe

The Confidence Conference Founder is Empowering Teens Through the Arts

Los Angeles, May 16, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Trinity Tiara has been selected to represent all communities in West Los Angeles at the Miss California Teen USA Competition as Miss West Los Angeles Teen USA. Her selection was based on her academic standing, involvement in her community, her passion for the pursuit of excellence and her interest in empowering other young women to follow in her footsteps.

Serving alongside the esteemed California Governor Jerry Brown, Trinity Tiara has partnered with the Department of Developmental Services Organization Agency to provide children and adults with developmental disabilities with Arts resources. She also has served as a VIP Celebrity hostess for celebrities visiting the CA Governors Office while educating them on the importance of public service in California communities. Her platform of empowering youth through Music, Technology and the Arts Education serves to advance youth leadership in America. Her youth leadership roles have benefited many political leaders, community-based organizations and schools across the State of California.

Trinity Tiara is the Founder of the Confidence Conference for Teens! As a second generation beauty queen, she continues the legacy of her mom Mykesha A. Robinson who is a well-known national pageant titleholder. Trinity Tiara will walk the stage at the Miss California USA Teen pageant with her youngest sibling Faith-Isabella who is crowned "Miss West LA Little Sister".

Trinity attends Brentwood School in Los Angeles, CA and is studying to be an attorney! Her passion is to attend Harvard after she graduates high school and pursues a private practice in International Diplomacy and Human Rights Law.
