Get to know Adult-Gerontology Nurse Practitioner Elise Martinez, who serves patients in Upland and Corona, California.

New York City, Jun 24, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Elise is a recent graduate of Azusa Pacific University. She holds both a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree and a Master of Science in Nursing degree. Elise is involved in medical mission work and is affiliated with Helps International and Global Medical Foundation, serving those in need around the world. When she is not traveling for mission work, she is working as a board certified adult-gerontology nurse practitioner with Dr. Ghassan Hadi at his internal medicine office in Upland, California as well as a registered nurse in the intensive care unit at Corona Regional Medical Center in Corona, California. Corona Regional Medical Center is a 238-bed community hospital network comprised of a 160-bed acute care hospital and a 78-bed rehabilitation campus. It is certified by The Joint Commission, employs more than 1,000 trained healthcare workers and has a medical staff of approximately 300 physicians representing more than 40 specialties.

Elise holds professional membership in the American Association of Critical Care Nurses and the American Association of Nurse Practitioners. The AANP is a community of individuals and organizations who are united by their commitment to provide exceptional patient care. She is also a member of the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing; the second-largest nursing organization in the world with approximately 135,000 active members.

Elise attributes her success to her mother, who has been a medical-surgical nurse for over 20 years. Medical-surgical nurses practice primarily in hospital units and care for adult patients who are acutely ill with a wide variety of medical issues or are recovering from surgery.

An adult-gerontology nurse practitioner, like Elise, is a nurse practitioner who specializes in continuing and comprehensive healthcare for adults across the lifespan from adolescence to old age.
