Blackfoot, Jun 21, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - There is a new social networking site ArtistXP.com, exclusively designed for passionate and professional artists working in different forms of artistry! The brainchild of marketing guru Beto Paredes, Artist Experience has been designed to serve as a platform for artists to upload, share, trade and celebrate their craft, other artists and fans. The site goes live on the internet on Saturday, June 22, 2019, and is anticipated by many to become one of the most beneficial sites for all kinds of artists and artistry.

“Powerful mediums need somewhere to live with a passion” – Beto Paredes, CEO ArtistXP.com.

Musicians, vocalists, rappers, dancers, and models, as well as a host of other artists, have plenty to gain from this platform, with exposure in front of a niche audience being the most prominent among them.

ArtistXP.com allows users to link their profiles to prominent social media platforms, including:

- YouTube
- Instagram
- Twitter
- Facebook
- Tumblr
- Soundcloud
- ReverbNation

Once linked, these platforms can be accessed directly through the profile dashboard, giving unfathomable access to the complete network in one place. Uploads and links from all the mentioned social media sites can be linked and imported to the dashboard and made available for the whole ArtistXP community to view, like and share.

The most unique feature of this site is the exchange tool. This tool allows an artist to share content from another artist's profile if the responder artist approves and vice-versa. This digital contract drawn by two artists to mutually share their content is unheard of and will provide a new audience-exposure experience to the artist every time this tool is used.

The Artist Experience also offers a unique opportunity to fans: they can now follow and interact with their favorite artists on a more personal level. Along with such personal artist-interactions, fans can make friends with other users along the way.

ArtistXP.com will also conduct quarterly competitions across various genres, and the winners get the opportunity to feature in a live streaming show on AudioDeadline.com. Fans can also vote for their favorite artists in the quarterly competitions, increasing their chances to be featured on the Deadline. Fans can also be a part of the Audio Deadline Experience by purchasing tickets to watch the show live.

The platform also has something for affiliates, as they can register with ArtistXP and earn high commissions for tickets for the AudioDeadline.com event and merchandise sales.
