Designer and founder, Lila Nikole Rivera, will unveil her newest collection at Miami Swim Week. The 24 new designs will highlight the design process that the brand has pioneered. Bohemian elements and Mediterranean influences are rendered into original prints, which are then emphasized by the pattern into uniquely hued prints and trendsetting silhouettes.

The inspiration for Free Spirit's color palette is derived from the world travels Lila Nikole has enjoyed and her wanderlust spirit. The color palette boasts regal shades of bold blues, aquas, oranges, purples, reds and rich greens.

All pieces from the Lila Nikole Collection are proudly made in the USA. Designs will include long sleeves, triangle tops, resort wear, tanga and Brazilian cuts, full cuts, one-pieces, and asymmetric silhouettes, with prices ranging from $75 to $200.

Free Spirit will launch in January 2020, in anticipation of spring / summer fashions, and will be available for purchase at select boutiques nationwide and online at www.lilanikole.com.
