Chicago, Dec 31, 1969 (IssueWire.com) - If there was ever an artist who crafted music ahead of his time then that would be the ingenious artist E-TRAIN. He is popular for his versatile and unique style that he brings forward through his compositions. While it is easy to group many of the artist's music into specific categories, however, E-TRAIN brings a style which is quite unique on its own making it difficult for his compositions to be grouped into one specific genre. His recent album Imagination of Mr. Malo, two of his tracks deserves extra attention popularly known as 'Beauty' and 'So Good'.

Both the tracks through-composed by the same artist E-TRAIN are poles apart from each other when it comes to the compositional structure of the songs. There is a combination of contemporary elements present in both the songs making them stand apart from the rest in the album. The artist who is also known as eTRAINmusic to his followers deserves this name as his music is specifically built upon his style and a technique.

'Beauty' has a low soothing soundscape which plays a direct contrast to the lyricism of the track making it more captivating in the process. While the intention of the artist is kept very clear from the beginning of the track, E-TRAIN wanted the audience to easily vibe with him. Compared to this, 'So Good' which the artist collaborated with another famous star Molly K, is a duet making it more alluring in the process.
