

Booking Newspaper Classified Ads Gets Upto 50% Cheaper With BookallAds

Leading online newspaper ad booking portal BookallAds allows people to book their print ads in top newspapers at much cheaper cost.

kolkata, Jul 19, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - BookallAds, the leading online newspaper advertisement booking portal has maximized the advantage of posting print ads through their platform by making the process upto 50% cheaper than the general cost. This rather exemplary advantage that is relevant across all categories in all partnered newspapers has garnered a momentous response from budget-conscious ad booking enthusiasts from all over India that has reflected in a steep traffic surge over the past few months.

At this very moment, the site is complete with added discounts and coupons that can bring the costs of single/multiple ad booking down by 20% to 40% even in top newspapers like Times of India, Hindustan Times, Anandabazar Patrika and more. This has been a welcome relief to small companies, business and individual entities across the nation that needs to post bulk ads on a regular basis.

While affordability in ad booking has been one of the most potent reasons for the ever-growing popularity of BookallAds, the platforms have also been widely appreciated for maintaining unrivalled excellence in terms of professional assistance extended towards ad creating, booking and posting services. On many occasions, professional assistance for creating classified is offered completely free of cost by BookallAds which further adds to the cost advantage offered by the platform.

At this moment, BookallAds is endeavouring to revolutionise online newspaper classified ad booking with more and more innovative inputs that are aimed towards making the process simpler, quicker and far more user-friendly than it already is.
