Get to know Dentist Dr. Charles Straughan, who serves patients in Mooresville, North Carolina.

New York City, Jul 1, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Straughan is a dentist who is currently serving patients' dental needs at Alliance Dental Group in Mooresville, North Carolina. There, he provides general and cosmetic dentistry services, including crowns, bridges, dental implants, dentures, veneers, bleaching, bonding, and more. The three core values of Alliance Dental Group are hospitality, respect, and quality.

Dr. Straughan was born and raised in Statesboro, Georgia - a small town outside of Savannah. He graduated from Statesboro High School as Valedictorian of his 2005 graduating class. From there, he headed to Athens, GA, where he graduated summa cum laude with his bachelor's degree in biology from the University of Georgia. Dr. Straughan continued to pursue this profession at Georgia Regents University College of Dental Medicine, where he graduated in the top 10% of his graduating class and was awarded membership into the Phi Kappa Phi National Dental Honor Society. He then went on to further his education at a General Practice Residency (GPR) program at Carolinas Medical Center Hospital in Charlotte, North Carolina. There, he increased his knowledge of endodontics, oral surgery, medically complex patients, and emergency patients.

Dr. Straughan always wanted to move back to the Charlotte area after his residency. To pursue this desire, he credentialed for dual board certification that certifies him to practice in all 50 states. He now lives in Charlotte full time with his wife and French bulldog.

In addition to his education, Dr. Straughan has been actively involved in the American Dental Association, staying up to date on policies and changes throughout the dental field. He has also been involved in Medical Campus Outreach - a program that reaches out to domestic and international communities.

Dr. Straughan has been on mission trips to Trinidad and Africa to help those without access to any form of medical care. He has also been an active participant in Missions of Mercy clinics in Georgia and North Carolina for underserved patients. Dr. Straughan is active in continuing education courses and the latest advancements in cutting-edge technology.

Dr. Straughan is a certified Invisalign® provider. Invisalign is a type of orthodontic treatment that helps to straighten teeth without the use of the typical metal braces.

Dentistry, also known as Dental and Oral Medicine, is a branch of medicine that consists of the study, diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of diseases, disorders, and conditions of the oral cavity. As a dentist, Dr. Straughan is responsible for diagnosing oral diseases, as well as promoting oral health and disease prevention. Additionally, he looks for abnormalities within the mouth such as lumps, swelling or discoloration, and performs necessary diagnostic procedures to diagnose and treat these abnormalities.
