New York City, Jul 16, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - With over 35 years of experience in his field, Dr. Raijman is a board-certified gastroenterologist who is currently serving patients at Greater Houston Gastroenterology - the largest full-service gastroenterology group in the Houston Metropolitan area. He is also affiliated with Texas Digestive Disease Consultants - a professional association of exceptionally trained gastroenterologists, providing the highest quality of care for patients with digestive problems in the states of Texas and Louisiana.

Dr. Raijman is also the Past Chief of Gastroenterology at Baylor St. Luke's Medical Center in Houston, Texas. Dr. Raijman is board-certified in both gastroenterology and internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Dr. Raijman is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians, a Fellow of the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy, as well as a Fellow of the American Gastroenterological Association.

Dr. Raijman earned his medical degree from the National Autonomous University of Mexico. He completed his internship in internal medicine and his residency at Mount Sinai Medical Center / Milwaukee Clinical Campus of the University of Wisconsin. He also completed his fellowship in the Department of Gastroenterology at the University of Texas at Houston, and his fellowship in advanced therapeutic endoscopy at the Wellesley Hospital in Toronto, Canada.

Dr. Raijman is very involved in academia. He is an active participant in clinical research, a presenter in national and international conferences, a training expert in advanced endoscopic procedures, a writer of manuscripts and book chapters, as well as a reviewer for peer-reviewed journals. He has consistently been recognized among the top-ranked doctors in Texas and in the United States.

"My approach is patient-centered, with application of best-practice medicine integrated with knowledge and skills acquired over many years of clinical practice. I offer less invasive treatments through the most advanced endoscopic and medical interventions. My goal is to provide compassionate care, comprehensive diagnosis and management within an atmosphere of comfort and trust for my patients" as stated by Dr. Raijman.

Gastroenterology is the branch of medicine focused on the digestive system and its disorders. A gastroenterologist, like Dr. Raijman, is a physician who has extensive training in the diagnosis and treatment of disorders related to the esophagus, stomach, intestines, and biliary system. In addition to general gastroenterology, Dr. Raijman has specific clinical interests in upper and lower endoscopy, pancreateoscopy, and cholangioscopy - among others.

In his spare time, Dr. Raijman enjoys painting, exercising both indoors and outdoors, traveling, reading books, and gardening. He likes everything about wines, from making them to drinking them. He has co-founded with his wife Lori "The Arts of Healing" foundation (theartsofhealing.org).
