

Gina Currier, LPN, Licensed Practical Nurse with Innovative Medical Billing, LLC.

Get to know Licensed Practical Nurse Gina Currier, who serves patients in Kingston, Tennessee.

New York City, Jul 31, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Gina is a licensed practical nurse. She currently holds the position of Practice Manager / Systems Director at Innovative Medical Billing, LLC in Kingston, Tennessee. "Innovative Medical Billing is a third-party billing company that works remotely from our office to your practice. Utilizing a third-party billing company such as IMB is beneficial in many ways. Contracting third-party enables practices to decrease overhead by reducing benefits such as health insurance, pension, and labour. In addition to saving on these benefits, practice is also able to reduce the stress and hassle of scheduling, employee turnaround, training, and so much more" as stated on their website.

Gina specializes in practice management and chronic care management. Practice management is the term used in General practice for the person who manages the finance and administration of a doctor's office or an office of a medical professional in one of many types of specialties in medicine. Chronic care management, as offered by organizations such as CareHarmony, encompasses the oversight and education activities conducted by health care professionals to help patients with chronic diseases and health conditions learn to understand their condition and live successfully with it.

Gina earned her nursing degree from Tennessee College of Applied Technology - Harriman in Harriman, Tennessee in 1977. She also earned her Associate of Science degree from Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tennessee.

An LPN is a nurse who cares for people who are sick, injured, convalescent or disabled. In the United States, LPNs work under the direction of physicians. A person can generally become an LPN with one to two years of training in the United States; all U.S state and territorial boards also require passage of the NCLEX-PN exam.
