

New Automotive Marketplace Seeks To ‘Wreck’ Online Car Sales

Finally- The ‘AutoTrader’ Of The Branded Title Industry

Salt Lake City, Jul 16, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - BrandedMarketplace.com launches its global online marketplace built specifically to provide a dedicated platform exclusively for the buying and selling of branded title vehicles. The platform will serve dealers, private sellers, rebuilders and automotive auction companies.

Commonly referred to as “salvage” or “rebuilt” cars, branded title vehicles have seen a dramatic rise in popularity and sales. Many believe it is due in large part to technological advances in the rebuilding and reconditioning process.

“With professional rebuilders able to return most damaged vehicles to factory specs structurally and cosmetically, car buyers are realizing these branded title vehicles are a wise and safe buy. Thousands of them are bought and sold every day in America. This growing automotive niche deserves its own marketplace. So we built them one”, said Troy Dunn, founder of BrandedMarketplace.com.

BrandedMarketplace.com is currently giving every car dealer and rebuilder in the United States free use of the platform for 60 days. Private sellers can post their vehicles for sale at a discounted rate through September 1st, 2019.

Dealers wanting to access BrandedMarketplace.com free for 60 days can gain access at <https://brandedmarketplace.com/dealer-sign-up/>.
