New York City, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Experience the unusual eclecticism and hard-hitting rap beats in the musical works of the aspiring artist Naomi Fox . The rap verses, the strong beats, and the intense vocal create a powerful ambiance around the listener. The relatively new artist has crafted five excellent tracks, and her immense talent has already earned her a huge fan following. The tracks are genuine, catchy, and musically enchanting. The beats in particular of the tracks stand out tall, for the fine balance between passion and intensity. The tracks are energizing and when played loud the effect is quite magnificent. The Brooklyn female rapper has already made a statement that she is here to rule the genre.

The track 'Going Bad' is her most loved song. The strong lyrics, the musical backdrop, and the hook section create a magnetic aura. The hook and the fusion of effects start to capture your head in no time. And, the Sound design is the strongest point of the track. Her recent release 'Bounce' has an amazing flow that carries the song from start to finish. The track hits with strong impact during its latter half. And it is quite easy to grab the swagger of the final beats as they embrace you. On the other hand the track '7 rings' is musically unusual and it takes the genre of hip hop to somewhere creative and fresh.

From the hook to the sound design, backdrop to the soundscape makes the tracks work so well that you crave more of her talent. The tracks are packets of energy and plays around with energy levels in an entrancing way. Everything happens very quickly, but you get addicted to it quite easily.
