Hall Jr grew up in an unstable household as his mother Keshia Walters was constantly working, unable to give him much guidance. His father Douglas A. Hall died after his senior year of high school, he was raised by himself who made effort to keep the family intact. He completed his high school education at Lucy Laney High School.

Like many other rappers, he traced his roots to the streets and have run-ins with the law and at the age of only 18, but fortunately, he was able to use music as a distraction from crime and as his music career took off he vowed to be a genuine and authentic rapper.

Career

Hall Jr started recording music at the age of 17, That year he released his debut Track " Make em Understand " the track rewarded the rapper a lot of exposure he needed. His musical flow earned him recognition as one of the best new lyricists to emerge from Augusta Ga.

- Hall Jr began his career in 2016 by signing to his own local label 2026 Music Group. His career blossomed along with fellow Augusta natives Blazer Barboza in the mid-2016. The two collaborated on Hall Jr first mixtape, The Leak, in 2017.

In early 2018, Hall Jr released the mixtape, Survived My City, via his 2026 Music Group record label. The mixtape received critical praise with Pitchfork saying it, "imbues trap's claustrophobic bleakness with an emotional nakedness, capable lyricism, and melodic certitude many of its recent breakout stars have lacked." Rolling Stone named the mixtape's single, "By Myself ", the 40th best song of 2018. On the heels of the success of that mixtape.

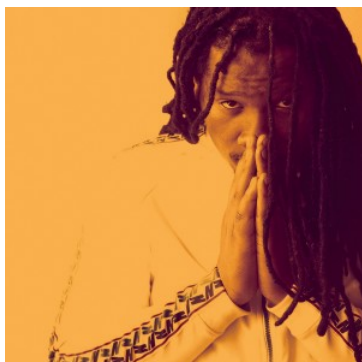

On May 25, 2019, Hall Jr announced that the sequel to The Manual would be coming on May 25, 2019.
