

Houston-based Record Label thebridgelife Inks Distribution Deal with IndieBlu

Houston, Aug 20, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Founded by Dove-award winning producer Billy Dorsey, thebridgelife has entered into an exclusive partnership with IndieBlu, exclusively distributed by Entertainment One.

Billy Dorsey, producer and co-founder said, "Our new partnership with Indie Blu gives us the infrastructure to succeed in our mission on a global scale as we'll work together to share new, up and coming, and already established talents with the world."

Formed with the intent of being the creative connection between artists and their dreams of impacting the world through art, the partnership between thebridgelife and IndieBlu positions the label to succeed in their mission.

The first single release under the new agreement is God Kept Me by Beau Williams featuring The HamilTones. Williams is widely known for his gospel album Wonderful, which reached number 22 and number 2 on Billboards' Top Contemporary Christian and Top Gospel Albums charts and earned Williams a Gospel Music Association (GMA) Dove Award for Best Traditional Black Gospel Recorded Song of the Year in 1981.

"I am elated that we are able to partner with Billy Dorsey and thebridgelife family in efforts to dominate the digital music space," said Darnell Nolin, Marketing & Promotions Coordinator at Indie Blu. "I am even more so honored that one of our first collaborations is with the living legend Beau Williams. I am passionate to see where this relationship leads us."

For media and interview requests, contact Makasha Dorsey at makasha@DGPRwire.com.

About Indie Blu

IndieBlu Music Digital Distribution serves as an extension of the Entertainment One Music Nashville brand in the independent artist space. Offering a menu of services for up and coming as well as established artists, IndieBlu is THE alternative to the traditional record label route. By listening to their partners, IndieBlu gives artists the opportunity to control their own destiny and can help artists and their team navigate the current digital music landscape.

About thebridgelife thebridgelife is a full-service production company and record label based in the Houston area. The company specializes in music production in all genres, songwriting, vocal production, and strategic brand management. Founded by award-winning producers and songwriters Billy Dorsey and Telford Birmingham II, thebridgelife was created to serve as the creative conduit for the musical dreams of the artists who entrust the company with their vision.

Media Contact

DGPR, LLC

makasha@dgprwire.com

3342461170

124 South Main Street Suite E

Source : thebridgelife

See on IssueWire : <https://www.issuewire.com/houston-based-record-label-thebridgelife-inks-distribution-deal-with-indieblu-1642406420523633>