

New Jersey Rapper DOM's New Album 'Pressure Makes Diamonds' is a Musical Kaleidoscope

New Jersey rapper DOM mixes music of different edges to make his album 'Pressure Makes Diamonds' that creates a trend in itself.

Santa Monica, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - DOM has a unique approach to shape his musicality that refuses to conform to any stereotypes. His funk and bass infused tracks manage to cross over into the mainstream with its powerful lyricism. He is destined to be a one-shot wonder whose soundscapes intertwine layers of beats to reveal considerable charms with each play. The new Jersey rapper graces the listeners with his very comforting and perfectly crafted voice that dominates the tracks throughout. One of the best attributes of his songs is the content which the artist brings to the table with a distinct and unique sound that emerges to redefine the genre. The powerful rap of the artist leaves the fans wanting for more.

Fresh from his well-curated album 'Pressure Makes Diamonds' which he brings through in an anthem style under his label Chrome Zebra Records has an energizing aura. Leading with a surprising beat his tracks 'Homeless', 'Around the World', and 'Sunset Saloon' opens to meet with a heavy beat and the New Jersey rapper scatters his vocal power on every turn. The songs are melodically rich and are well constructed with evocative beats and strong bass lines that take it directly to the playlist and have the potential of a major rock hit.

DOM is a versatile music artist who is well versed as a producer, singer, songwriter and a guitarist. His different styles come together to make impressive songs along with his vocal style which doesn't rely on any instrumental power. The songwriting embodies honesty with a quirk touch that successfully establishes its ark. The rapper continues to hit the mark consecutively with the release of all his tracks and aims high to build his name firmly in the music industry. Listen to his tracks on
