

Cloud Analogy Announces The Opening Of A New Office In Kurukshetra

Dover, Sep 30, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Cloud Analogy is pleased to announce an exciting new chapter in its quest to be the premier provider of Salesforce Implementation Solutions and Salesforce Development Services. The premier Salesforce ISV AppExchange Development Company announced its new branch in Kurukshetra, which is strategically located between Delhi and Chandigarh.

Ajay Dubedi, the CEO and Founder of Cloud Analogy, remarked: "Cloud Analogy is thrilled to announce its new office in Kurukshetra that is undoubtedly one of the best cities in India because of its urban area dynamics." Ajay added, "This announcement could not have come at a better time for us, especially on the back of ever-growing opportunities in the booming Salesforce environment and our consistent growth worldwide. We've ambitious plans globally, but most importantly, we are truly excited to have a direct presence in India, one of the fastest-growing economies of the world, and work closely with our clients, partners, and vendors."

Ajay also remarked that Cloud Analogy has positioned itself on the cutting edge of the Salesforce Development Platform so that it can effortlessly provide the best Salesforce implementation services, Salesforce consultancy services, and Salesforce ISV AppExchange Development solutions. As a result, our organization has been able to manage steady growth throughout and it is exactly because of this reason that our projected outlook is bright and positive as well.

Somya Tyagi, the Chief Operating Officer of Cloud Analogy, said "Cloud Analogy is excited to announce the official opening of our Kurukshetra office. It is, undoubtedly, a huge step for everyone at the world's leading Salesforce Development Company, to have our second office in India. We are highly optimistic about the wonderful opportunities ahead of us Kurukshetra brings in terms of new business and recruitment."

Nitish Bhardwaj, the Chief Information Officer of Cloud Analogy, said "At Cloud Analogy, we firmly believe that successfully and seamlessly providing custom Salesforce services, solutions, and capabilities for our esteemed clients require more than just planning, perseverance, knowledge, execution, and final deliverables. Cloud Analogy's commitment to excellence, combined with its mission to deliver measurable and outstanding service, has earned our organization the wonderful reputation we hold today."

Akshay Dhiman, the Chief Technical Officer of Cloud Analogy, remarked, "There is nothing that could have made us more excited about the new office. When Cloud Analogy started 4 years ago, we looked a bit different than we do presently. Although we started small, Cloud Analogy always had a strong desire to grow with its clients. This was only possible because of Ajay's vision to have a clear vision even then that it was crucial to look ahead toward the future as well."

Akshay added, "This new workplace will offer so many amazing benefits for our clients as well as our people. We're sure that our expansion will bring added quality and convenience to our already stellar Salesforce development solutions. With a two-front presence in India and presence in the United States, Australia, and the United Kingdom, Cloud Analogy is now able to bring even more personalized Salesforce services to its clients irrespective of where they are located."
