

Fine Hospitality Announces the Newly Renovated Holiday Inn Express & Suites Albuquerque Midtown

Over $2.75 million spent on renovating the Holiday Inn Express & Suites Albuquerque Midtown to IHG's newest design solution Formula Blue™.

Albuquerque, Sep 30, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Holiday Inn Express & Suites Albuquerque Midtown features Intercontinental Hotel Group's (IHG) newest design solution Formula Blue™, which was created to meet the evolving needs of all travellers visiting and travelling through Albuquerque. The design features an appealing combination of fresh, energetic and engaging elements, creating a distinctive style that is evident at every touchpoint of the modern experience.

Features of the recently renovated hotel include:

- An open, pod-style front desk area that delivers a familiar and expedited check-in and out experience
- 122 all-suite rooms with ample free space & sofa bed great for families or extended business stays
- All Double Beds that have been upgraded to Queen Beds
- Refreshingly streamlined guestrooms that provide comforts and features that allow guests to be productive during their stay and have a great night's sleep, including noise-reducing headboard and television tower, multiple points of power conveniently located throughout the room and functional storage allowing guests to live out of their suitcase or unpack into a variety of storage options
- A large 1500 sqft meeting room that can be divided into 2 meeting spaces holding up to 80 guests in total. Meeting room amenities include a screen, projectors, and visual and audio upon request
- New and improved Holiday Inn Express Start™ breakfast bar with freshly prepared food in the house. We will now be preparing and serving hot, fresh and high-quality breakfast food every morning

Michaela Dodson, hotel General Manager stated, "I am very excited to complete 12 months of a full interior and exterior renovation to have a modernized hotel that will assure to wow our guests!"
