

Ice Forum Celebrates it's 25th Anniversary With Skating Parties every Saturday in October

Public Skating Parties

9/23/2019 Ice Forum Ice Skating Facility in Duluth, Georgia is Celebrating 25 Years of Operation. Since 1994 Ice Forum has provided the Greater Atlanta community with wholesome family ice skating recreation including hockey, figure skating, public skating, and fundraising.

Every Saturday at 2:30 pm, starting October 5th., Ice Forum will be throwing a huge celebratory ice-skating party. The 25th celebration parties are open to the public. Every Saturday, everyone can either receive discounted admission, discounted skate rental, or special promotions in the concessions. Also, on various days throughout the celebrations, there will be DJ's playing dance music (JDSilver ATL), free Bar-B-Q, Prize Raffles, Face Painting, Balloon Sculpting, and Special Surprise Giveaways Prizes. The public is welcome to share in the 25th Anniversary Celebration every Saturday in October. The IceForum is located at 2300 Satellite Blvd., Duluth, Georgia 30097, phone 770-813-1010.
