Get to know General & Restorative Dentist Dr. Joseph F. Perry, who serves patients in Red Bank, New Jersey.

New York City, Sep 21, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr Perry is a general & restorative dentist who is currently serving patients' dental needs at his private dental practice in Red Bank, New Jersey. He has a long-standing reputation as a trusted and experienced dental professional in the Red Bank and Greater Monmouth County area. His patients' needs are at the heart of every decision and treatment diagnosis he creates. With a thirst for knowledge and as an educator himself, Dr Perry remains abreast of current advances in his field and brings the best of what he learns to his patients.

With vast experience in so many aspects of dentistry, Dr Perry's approach to the dental needs of his patients is to treat their needs with sound professional judgment, open communication, and respect. Whether the seemingly simplest or the most complex treatment, each patient receives his noted attention to every detail.

In the mid-1970s, Dr Perry served as a prosthodontic chairperson at the Monmouth Medical Center of Dentistry in Long Branch, New Jersey, which included operating room privileges. From 1980 to 1984, he served as an Assistant Clinical Professor for the Department of Occlusion at the Georgetown University School of Dentistry, under the chairmanship of Dr Peter Neff. He proudly continues to pursue his teaching interests as an Attending Physician in the Dental Residency Training Program at Monmouth Medical Center. Dr Perry is also an Instructor for Express Smiles, as well as a Senior Certified Instructor for the International Association for Orthodontics.

Dr Perry earned his Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS) degree from the Georgetown University School of Dentistry in Washington, D.C. in 1970. He then went on to complete his residency training at Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch, New Jersey in 1971. He remains committed to participating and learning the latest procedures and practices through continuing education programs.

Dr Perry is a member of the American Dental Association, the New Jersey Dental Association, the Monmouth-Ocean County Dental Society, the Academy of General Dentistry, the International Association for Orthodontics, and the American Academy of Craniofacial Pain.

Having studied and taught with some of the world's finest practitioners in the field of jaw joint relationships and jaw problems, Dr Perry provides a unique awareness and focus in this area. He works to prevent the pain often associated with jaw joint problems. Whenever necessary, he strives to alleviate such problems in an effective and conservative manner.

Dr Perry attributes his success to adhering to the basic fundamental principles of sound dentistry. He believes that the best dentistry is treatment the patient forgets they ever had. This means providing high-quality dental care so that everything looks, feels, and functions so naturally.

Dentistry, also known as Dental and Oral Medicine, is a branch of medicine that consists of the study, diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of diseases, disorders, and conditions of the oral cavity. As a general & restorative dentist, Dr Perry has the skills needed to complete an array of procedures that are both simple or complex in nature.

Dr Perry's favorite professional publication is the Journal of the American Dental Association.

A life-long New York Yankees and New York Giants fan, visits with Dr Perry are often "extended" if the subject comes up. Often, he can be found early in the morning at the gym attending spinning class. He also enjoys being outside on his bicycle or carefully negotiating his way down a snow-covered mountain trail. Furthermore, he enjoys both film and digital photography, as well as foreign and domestic travel.
