

Lady Boss rapper Dricka is Gaining Momentum with The official YouTube Music Video ‘Save Me’

Experience the true audio-visual experience by watching the music video ‘Save Me’ by up and coming female rap sensation Dricka. She is at the pick of at stardom.

Mobile, Sep 13, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - If you still think and the rap zone is male-dominated, clear your doubts by watching the official music video of ‘Save Me’ by the lady boss rapper Dricka. Young and passionate Dricka is from Alabama and has the perfect attributes that a true rap diva possesses. She is breaking the mold and is setting a new standard for female rappers and women MCs. The 23 old was born in the day when 2pac was wretchedly snatched from the hip hop world. It would not be wrong to say that she has been blessed with a bold personality that of course is the result of her sincerity and dedication to the art form. Her recent music video ‘Save Me’ is directed by BMB Films and is now available for watching on YouTube.

Dricka appears like a star in the music video, perfectly dressed as a swagger rapper and with full-on attitude. The lyrics of the track indicates that she is going through a terrible phase of life where she feels lonely and that no one understands what she wants. The video is shot in a beautiful location and there's a scene where Dricka is seen in conversation with a lady (probably Mother) who seems not understanding the pain she is going through. Dricka is craving for peace and her mother tries and understands what she wants. The music video ends in a happy note and the best part is that through this Dricka has highlighted some important facts that today's youth face in general.

When it comes to the background score of the track, the rhythmic flow in the single is outstanding and Dricka's flawless rapping and its synchronization with the music makes the single edgy. Dricka has her own YouTube channel in the name of HomeGrownCartel one of which features her interview in iHeartRadio and others are some of her singles. Her debut album 'BOSSMADE' proves that she is the female reincarnation of Makaveli the Don. She is indeed the new face and the lady boss of the youthful hip hop and rap music. Feel energetic and generate the courage to speak out loud by watching 'Save Me' by Dricka, the next female rap sensation.
