New York City, Sep 30, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Dhurjon is a board-certified ophthalmologist with extensive and diverse expertise in his line of work. He specializes in the treatment of retinal injuries and conditions at Port Arthur Health Centre in Thunder Bay, Ontario. The staff of the Port Arthur Health

Centre are a team of competent healthcare professionals dedicated to meeting the medical needs of the community. They work closely with laboratories, diagnostic equipment, and nearby hospitals to offer the highest standard of medical services.

In addition to seeing patients at Port Arthur Health Centre, Dr. Dhurjon is affiliated with Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Centre - an acute care facility serving Thunder Bay and much of Northwestern Ontario, Canada.

With years of experience in his field, Dr. Dhurjon attributes his success to patience and persistence. He was originally educated in Barbados, where he earned his medical degree at the University of the West Indies at Cave Hill, before relocating to McGill University to complete his internship. Thereafter, he earned the coveted title of Fellow of the Royal Colleges of Surgeons (FRCS).

Ophthalmology is a branch of medicine and surgery, which deals with the diagnosis and treatment of eye disorders. Ophthalmologists are experts in the diseases, functions, and anatomy of the eye. They may provide routine care such as vision testing, as well as prescribe and fit eyeglasses or contact lenses. However, ophthalmologists are also surgeons. They repair traumatic injuries to the eye and perform cataract, glaucoma, and corneal surgery.

In his spare time, Dr. Dhurjon enjoys playing squash, cycling and listening to music. His favorite professional publication is the Journal of Retina.
