This new version of Mahabharat presented the point of view of these two characters and highlighted the causes that led to the destructive War. This perfectly packaged Mythological drama Kept the audiences in Mumbai's Nehru Centre and St Andrews Auditorium totally engross and engaged on 14th And 15th September 2019 Kudos to producer-actor Rahul Bhuchar to promotes quality theatre who gave the audiences a mesmerizing experience! .Mahabharat has a galaxy of iconic stars from the world of film, television, and theatre that includes Puneet Issar, Rahul bhuchar, Meghna Malik, Gufi paintal, Surendra Pal , Aarti Nagpal, Karan Sharma, Harleen rekhi, Sidhanth Issar, Danish Akhtar, Yashodhan Rana, and Diksha Raina.

Puneet Issar, the writer, and director “Mahabharat,” said. This rendition of Mahabharata brings forth Duryodhan's version of reality and truth as he saw it. The play throws light on the human aspects of his life such as his rock solid bond of friendship towards his friend - Karan, his relationship with elders of the Kuru clan and Draupadi. This version of Mahabharata allows audiences to view this epic tale with a fresh new perspective."

Rahul Bhuchar, Producer and MD, Felicity Theatre adds "Recreating Mahabharata with some of the finest talent from cinema and television has truly been a fascinating journey. It is a blockbuster production with magnificent sets and an amazing storyline. I am extremely happy with the overwhelming response that we have received from Theatre lovers in Mumbai

This never seen before version of Mahabharata written by Puneet Issar is narrated by DHARTI MATA (Mother Earth played by the renowned TV Actress Meghna Malik). She explains that no matter what the reasons for conflict may have been, the end result has always been the destruction of the planet and mankind. This play revolves around three pivotal characters Duryodhan(Puneet Issar), Karan(Rahul Bhuchar) and Draupadi(Harleen rekhi). The arrogance Of Draupadi, The shrewdness Of Shakuni(Gufi Paintal), and the obstinacy of Duryodhan may have caused the conflict but under the debris of all Evil was Buried the forgotten story of true friendship, unconditional love, and selfless sacrifice ever witnessed by mankind. The dilemma of the Pandavas (Danish Akhtar and Karan Sharma), Kunti's Pain(Diksha Raina), Gandhari's(Aarti Nagpal) helplessness, and Lord Krishna's(Yashodhan Rana) guidance that has been created for eternity is portrayed beautifully by an ensemble of well-known actors.

Mahabharata depicts a strong bond between two friends Duryodhan and Karan, the two eminent characters of the play and lays emphasis on the fact that ' There is a little good in every bad and a little bad in every good '. This magnificent production was showcased on spectacular larger than life sets .with high voltage drama, sound, and lights. To enhance the viewing experience, the music has been specially composed and recorded to augment the overall experience for theatergoers.
