In her spare time, Dr Mohandesi enjoys listening to music, dancing, doing outdoor activities, spending time with her family, and travelling.

Family medicine, formerly family practice, is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for all adults and children; the specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. Family physicians are often the first person whom a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility. Dr Mohandesi's interests include pediatric and minor office procedures, dermatology, women's health, and preventive care.
