

NeverLeveled Is Returning to Montego Bay with It's Destination Festival "Culture"

A Group Travel Trip You Don't Want To Miss

Saint James, Sep 24, 2019 (Issuewire.com) - Something big to look forward to in the fall of 2020, NeverLeveled has already announced the dates and event catalogues of one of the biggest cultural, art, and entertainment destination festival 'Culture'. This time, it is going to be a five-day gala in the backdrop of the capital of natural mesmeric blue skies, relentless beaches, and the uninhibited breath of freedom, Montego Bay, Jamaica. The festival is setting up camp between the 3rd and 7th of September with a lineage of music, art, food, activities, workshops, interactions, friendships, self-exploration, and everything else that urban life does not allow you to do without the complexities of existence.

NeverLeveled has signed up with the dynamic 90's R&B themed event organizers Brunch2Bomb in the next yearly segment of Culture. The line-up of this 4-day affair does not just promise creative growth individually or as a group, but also makes meeting and striking a chord with people from around the world in the sultry breeze of old-school Jamaica add to its collective belongingness.

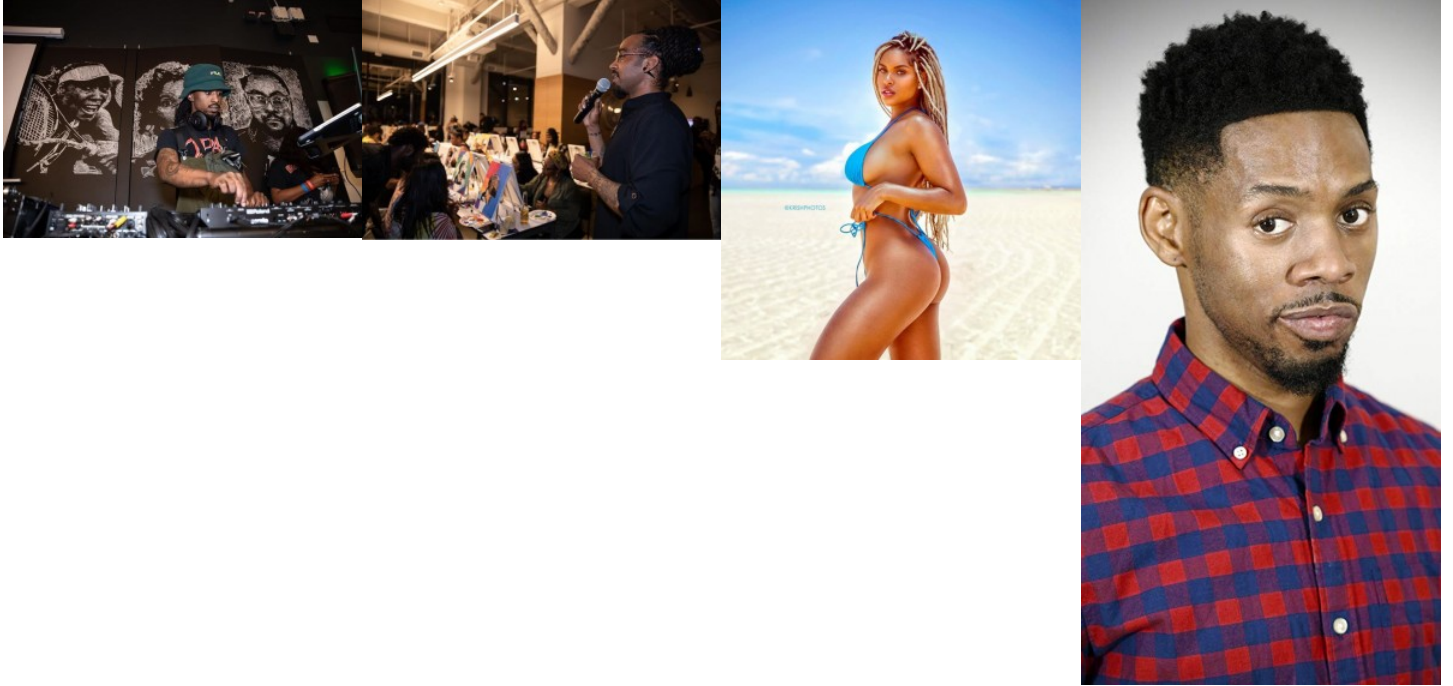

The first hours of the festival will start with the thematic (and symbolic) event of Soul & Paint under the creative guidance of artist Keenan Chapman instructing the guests all along as DJ and musician Iman Omari will provide the smooth sounds of R&B and Soul. Secretly designed for guests to 'break the ice' with fellow attendees amidst colors, painting Urban Themes, music, and freedom of being, Soul & Paint marks the beginning of what can be called a global celebration of life and its beautiful intricacies.

The boisterous amalgam of music and colors will be followed by the Silk & Lace Party that redefines freedom to live and let live like no other event. Guests can wear their heart and soul in lingerie, silk, lace, and dance the night away in blithe bliss to the jivey sound of DJ Millie under the psychedelia of glistening LED lights.

Sign up for a Cigar Rolling Class under the supervision of Lorena Garduno and smoke a blunt or two under the sultry sky with music playing as the perfect host to the density of roasted smoke. The day unrolls further with comedy stunts by Alphonso Mcauley, Edwonda White, and Evan Lionel with DJ G-Hes providing the musical groove to the experience. Also, watch out this space for a surprise announcement, Winter of 2020.

The concert is set to feat various R&B, Soul, Jazz, Reggae and Dancehall artists. The announcements of the line-up will be made official this fall. TDE DJ D-Ron will be shouldering the dire responsibility of adding sound elements in the Afterparty is another big attraction. Other events include a special set sponsored by Brunch2Bomb featuring the undulating sound mix by DJ Benjamin Walker, yoga classes with Tiona Oliver of Cardyoga, Domino's Tournament, Spades Tournament, Workout with Dominique Carter, attend the business mixer with Jabari Smith, and Glo & Holi Powder Beach Party with a food fest featuring chefs Lemel Durrah of Compton Vegan and Jontae Vinson of Wings N Waffles among others. Los Angeles radio station KJLH host Adai Lamar has been roped in to host the weekend jamboree. Culture will be a loaded weekend.
