

New Poetry Collection Seeks to Deliver God's Love, Bless Readers Everywhere

It is impossible not to lose yourself in the author's poems that are inspired by God's unwavering love

LILLIE MAE HIPPS-DICKERSON

SATAN DON'T BLOCK MY WAY

Pittsburg, Sep 11, 2019 (IssueWire.com) - Author Lillie Mae Hipps Dickerson announces the nationwide release of her new book, Satan Don't Block My Way, where she shares her writing for the Lord's people who need a word from the Lord to be blessed in his love.

The book is an inspiring collection of poems Dickerson wrote to inspire people to live their lives through the eyes of their life in God. Dickerson is the second of nine children. At nine months old, she had polio. At the age of three, the doctor gave her only a fifty-fifty chance to live. But the Lord went through and blessed her to be the person she is today—a writer of strong faith with big love to give.

Lillie Mae's work will be exhibited at the Manila International Book Fair to be held at the SMX Convention Center Manila, Mall of Asia in Pasay City, Philippines this coming Sept. 11-15, 2019 from 10am-8pm at the Authors Press booth no. 2-35. POETRY

It is a book of short poems written to inspire people to live their lives through the eyes of their life in God.

I am the second of nine children, and at nine months old I had polio. I started walking at the age of three and the doctor gave me a fifty fifty chance of living. Some of them say I would be in a vegetable state, but the Lord bless me to be the person that I am today. My faith in the Lord is very strong, I am a writer and I write for the Lord's people who need a word from the Lord to be blessed in His love.
